Price Validity

- This quotation is an estimate based on your discussion with the authorized Livspace representative and it is valid for 21 days from the date of its generation. Price changes will be applied, if applicable, in case the order is raised after 21 days.
- The precise price of the project depends on final scope of work, site measurements, material finishes and design changes, if any. Kindly expect the quote value to change by approximately 5-10%. However, in the case of customization and any additional scope added later on, the final quote value might substantially change from
