Justification for Price / Rate

The Market Value of the property is based on facts of markets discovered by us during our enquiries, however the government rate value in this case is less than the market value arrived by us. We are of the opinion that the value arrive by us will prove to be correct if an Auction of the subject property is carried out. As far as Market Value in Index II is concerned, it is not possible to comment on same, may be government rates are fixed by sampling during same point of time in part and whereas, Market values change every month.

In most of the cases the actual deal amount or Transaction value is not reflected in Index II because of various Market practices. As Valuer, we always try to give a value which is correct reflection of actual transaction value irrespective of any factors in market.

Method of Valuation / Approach

The sales comparison approach uses the market data of sale prices to estimate the value of a real estate property. Property valuation in this method is done by comparing a property to other similar properties that have been recently sold. Comparable properties, also known as comparables, or comps, must share certain features with the property in question. Some of these include physical features such as square footage, number of rooms, condition, and age of the building; however, the most important factor is no doubt the location of the property. Adjustments are usually needed to account for differences as no two properties are exactly the same. To make proper adjustments when comparing properties, real estate appraisers must know the differences between the comparable properties and how to value these differences. The sales comparison approach is commonly used for Residential Flat, where there are typically many comparables available to analyze. As the property is a Residential Flat, we have adopted Sale Comparison Approach Method for the purpose of valuation. The Price for similar type of

Valuation Methodology

For the purpose of this valuation exercise, the valuation methodology used is Direct Comparison Approach Method and proposed Highest and Best Use model is used for analysing development potential.

The Direct Comparison Approach involves a comparison of the property being valued to similar properties that have actually been sold in arms - length transactions or are offered for sale. This approach demonstrates what buyers have historically been willing to pay (and sellers willing to accept) for similar properties in an open and competitive market and is particularly useful in estimating the value of the Flat and properties that are typically traded on a unit basis.

In case of inadequate recent transaction activity in the subject micro-market, the appraiser would collate details of older transactions. Subsequently, the appraiser would analyse rental / capital value trends in the subject micro-market in order to calculate the percentage increase / decrease in values since the date of the identified transactions. This percentage would then be adopted to project the current value of the same.

Where reliance has been placed upon external sources of information in applying the valuation methodologies, unless otherwise specifically instructed by Client and/or stated in the valuation, VCIPL has not independently verified that information
